It was raining as she stormed out of the house and slammed the door behind her. There was nothing for it, she had made her bed and would now have to lie in it. She couldn't go back and apologise - well not just yet anyway. A flash of lightning lit up the street as she set off hoping she would find some shelter. Then her mind registered what she had seen in the brightness. It was a man in armour sitting astride a huge war horse!
